Horse Attached to Wagon Filled With Loot Goes Home; Arrest Owner.

Home; Arrest Owner.

The boming instincts of a broken down horse led to the arrest, about it clock Wednesday night, of Jesus Castaneda, who lives on South Stanton street near the river, in connection with the robbery of a large quantity of sugar from a beat car.

Officers dispovered some men who were luthe act of ransaching a bonded box car and who su coneded in making their encape. The officers, knowever, found a horse and wagon loaded with 1250 pounds of sugar.

When the start was made to the station with the sugar, the animal stached to the express waxon indicated a desire to so in the opposite direction. The policeman driving the wagon let the horse have free rein and she promptly went to the home of Castaneda. He was arrested.

Produce Store Eatered.

The Watson-Wilson company's produce establishment at 120 South Kansas street, was broken into Wednesday night, but the burgiars were frushtened away. About 8 oclock poople living in the vicinity saw a border stay night, but the burgiars were frushtened away. About 8 oclock poople living in the vicinity saw a border a window and enter. When the officers arrived, they found the boy gone. Before his departure, however, he had entered the basement and left some doors open, evidently for the entrance of his confesterates. The police left a ginard at the building.

The home of J. T. Higgins at 122 North St. Vrain street, was entered entry Wednesday night and several dresses and bats, a pearl locket, some pearl earrings, and a diamond set gold-handled knife, were taken. The long having in his possession several small ricles. He is charged with theft under $50.

Junquin Alvarado was arrested on South Santa Fe street Wednesday night with a bicycle, allexed to have been stolen from a Western Union measurement boy. The wheel disappeared from the alley adjoining the Western Union office.
